

YORK ISSP, YORK HUMAN RIGHTS CITY and THE UNIVERSITY OF YORK

Opinionate!

Monday 10 June & Thursday 13 June 2019 6-8pm

University of York

Why care about humans' rights?

Do you want to know more about big world issues?

Do you like debate?

How informed are your opinions?

Come and work with university students on varied human rights issues to learn more. If you come to these Human Rights workshops you will learn to discuss and debate Human Rights issues based on real people's experiences. The topics that will be dealt with range from the right to be healthy and the right to an education to homelessness, a decent standard of living and hate crime.

Opinionate! is a FREE course of two active workshops for students in years 7-9 and students should attend both: Monday 10 June 6pm to 8pm and Thursday 13 June 6pm to 8pm. Students do not need to wear school uniform and, as is the norm with our events, will be allocated to mixed school groups. The sessions take place in room PT006 in the Physics Exhibition Centre at the University of York (marked number 22 on the PDF of Heslington West campus map). There is a place in front of the centre to drop off and a car park very close by.

We have a limited number of places which we expect will fill up very quickly, so we encourage you to book a place as soon as possible. The booking form will close when all places have been taken.
